LITURGY OF THE WORD

33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time B
Daniel 12:1-3 Hebrews 10:11-14, 18 Mark 13:24-32

Psalm Response

Keep me safe, O God; you are my hope.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!

Be watchful, pray constantly,
that you may be worthy to stand before the Son of Man. Alleluia!

In the midst of the darkness, the quaking of the heavens, and the great distress of the last days, one thing remains to give us comfort: the presence of Jesus Christ. They will see the Son of Man coming in the clouds. Christ is the Word that will not pass away. By virtue of that one single offering, he has achieved the eternal perfection of all whom he is sanctifying. The learned will shine brightly in the midst of such darkness by clinging to this Word with full awareness, obedience, and trust. Christ is now waiting until his enemies are made into a footstool. As for us, we wait for Christ and the day of his return.

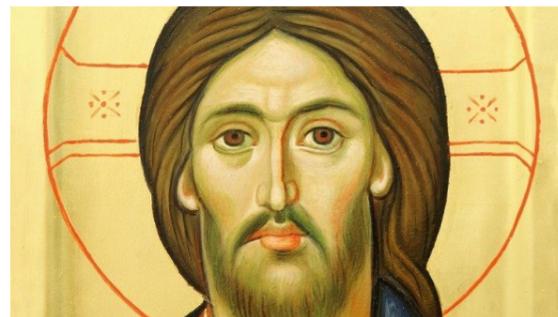

*You will show me the path of life,
the fullness of joy in your presence,
at your right hand
happiness for ever*

Psalm 15

The Last Judgment will take place at the end of the world, at the second coming of Christ. All who are in the tombs will hear his voice and come forth, those who have done good, to the resurrection of life, and those who have done evil, to the resurrection of judgment.

When Christ comes again in glory, his full splendour will shine upon us. The truth will come plainly to light: our thoughts, our deeds, our relationship to God and to other men—nothing will remain hidden. We will recognize the ultimate meaning of creation, comprehend God's marvellous ways for the sake of our salvation, and finally receive also an answer to the question of why evil can be so powerful if God is in fact the Almighty.

The Last Judgment is also our day in court. Here it is decided whether we will rise to eternal life or be separated from God forever. Toward those who have chosen life, God will act creatively once again. In a new body they will live forever in God's glory and praise him with body and soul.

At the end of time, God will create a new heaven and a new earth. Evil will no longer have any power or attractiveness. The redeemed will stand face to face with God — as his friends. Their yearning for peace and justice will be fulfilled. To behold God will be their blessedness. The Triune God will dwell among them and wipe away every tear from their eyes; there will be no more death, sorrow, lamentation, or trouble.
