

Processional Hymn CWB

Refrain: Let us go rejoicing to the house of the lord;
let us go rejoicing to the house of the Lord.

I rejoiced when I heard them say:
"Let us go to God's house."
And now our feet are standing within your Gates, O Jerusalem. Refrain

Jerusalem is built
as a city strongly compact.
It is there that the tribes go up,
the tribes of the Lord. Refrain

For the love of my fam'ly and friends,
I say: "Peace be upon you!"
For the love of the house of the Lord,
I will ask for your good. Refrain

Liturgy of the Word

Isaiah 66:10-14 Galatians 6:14-18 Luke 10:1-12,17-20

Psalm Response

Let all the earth cry out to God with joy.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia! May the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, and the fullness of his message live within you.
Alleluia!

The book of the prophet Isaiah concludes with the promise that God will send peace flowing like a river on all the nations. Today's Gospel reminds us that missionaries are always needed to bring this peace to others. May the peace of Christ dwell in our hearts. May the people we meet experience through us the peace referred to in the Jewish greeting, 'Shalom! Peace be with you!'

Preparation of the Gifts CWB 555

Make me a channel of your peace.
Where there is hatred, let me bring your love,
where there is injury, your pardon, Lord,
and where there's doubt, true faith in you.

Make me a channel of your peace:
Where there's despair in life let me bring hope,
where there is darkness, only light,
and where there's sadness, ever joy.

Oh Master, grant that I may never seek
so much to be consoled as to console.
to be understood as to understand,
to be loved, as to love with all my soul.

Make me a channel of your peace.
It is in pardoning that we are pardoned,
in giving of ourselves that we receive,
and in dying that we're born to eternal life

Holy Communion CWB 470

"Come to me, all you who labour;
come, and I will give you rest."

So we hear your invitation
to each soul to be your guest;
and we answer with deep longing,
while our sinfulness we see,

"Jesus, Lord, I am not worthy, yet in mercy come to me."

Here, among your pilgrim people I s the home of your true love,
where we praise you, Lord and Master,
reigning from your throne above;
life without you would be lonely,
so our prayer must ever be:

"Jesus, Lord, I am not worthy, yet in mercy come to me."

All is joy when you are with us,
earth can never joy impart
like the peace and holy splendour
of your visit to each heart;
all forgotten grief and sorrow,
as with trust we make our plea,

"Jesus, Lord, I am not worthy, yet in mercy come to me."

Recessional Hymn CWB 399

Christ, our Lord, the Prince of ages,
Christ, the nations' glorious King,
whom we praise with exultation,
saints and angels answering,
to your throne with true devotion,
hearts and minds and senses bring.

Come, O Lord, and claim your kingdom,
rebel hearts your grace can gain;
bend the stubborn will of rulers
who from homage still refrain:
in the home, as in the city,
be supreme, O Christ, and reign.

On our own dear land, Australia,
let the light of mercy shine,
that, in holy Church, united,
all may know the saving sign:
Christ, up on the Cross uplifted,
drawing all with love divine!

"You know, Bob," a man said, "whenever my wife and I get into an argument she gets historical." "You mean hysterical, Sam, don't you?" "No, I mean historical—she remembers everything I ever did wrong with the exact date and time it happened!"

I have observed Satan fall like lightning from the sky.

Imagine the impact these seventy two disciples must have made as they fanned out through the regions of Galilee and Samaria. Thousands of people up and down the Jordan Valley were hearing the good news of salvation. The mercy of God flowed freely as they were healed and delivered from the grip of demons. It's no wonder the disciples were so excited when they returned!

It's no wonder, too, that Jesus told them he had seen Satan fall from the sky while they were gone. The mission of the seventy-two marked a dramatic escalation in God's plan of salvation. Now, instead of having to contend with only Jesus and the Twelve, the devil was seeing a lot more people driving out his minions in a lot more places. And it was only going to keep growing.

This is your story as well. You are part of a two thousand-yearlong line of men and women whom Jesus has empowered to announce the good news. Your spiritual lineage includes great saints like Francis of Assisi and Mother Teresa of Calcutta, but it also includes millions upon millions of unknown saints who have pushed back the dark ness of the devil. It includes you.

Every time you forgive someone, you are snuffing out another fiery dart from the "accuser of our brothers". Every time you reach out to give generously of your time or resources to someone who is hurting, you are disarming the one who is a "thief" and whose only goal is to "destroy". Every time you share the truth about God's love, you are silencing the "father of lies". Bit by bit, step-by-step, you are contributing to the devil's ultimate defeat.

'All praise to you, Jesus, for let ting me share in your victory over the evil one!'
