

Processional Hymn AOV 90

I, the Lord of sea and sky,
I have heard my people cry.
All who dwell in dark and sin
my hand will save.
I who make the stars of night,
I will make their darkness bright.
Who will bear my light to them?
Whom shall I send? Refrain

Refrain: Here I am, Lord. Is it I, Lord?
I have heard you calling in the night.
I will go, Lord, if you lead me.
I will hold your people in my heart

I, the Lord of snow and rain,
I have borne my people's pain.
I have wept for love of them.
They turn away.

I will break their hearts of stone,
give them hearts for love alone.
I will speak my words to them.
Whom shall I send? Refrain

I, the Lord of wind and flame,
I will tend the poor and lame.
I will set a feast for them.
My hand will save.

Finest bread I will provide
'til their hearts be satisfied.

I will give my life to them.

Whom shall I send? Refrain

Liturgy of the Word

Daniel 7:9-10, 13-14

2 Peter 1:16-19

Matthew 17:1-9

Psalm Response

The Lord is king, the Most High over all the earth.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!

This is my Son, my beloved, in whom is all my delight: listen to him. Alleluia!

Through the eyes of resurrection faith, Jesus' first disciples came to understand that, during his earthly life, they had caught glimpses of his unique relationship with God. In his life of unswerving fidelity to the Father's will, the glory into which Jesus entered through his passion and death shone through. 'We had seen his majesty for ourselves' wrote Peter.

Preparation of the Gifts CWB 434

Please accept our gifts of bread and wine, fruit of the field, fruit of the vine.

Just as the many grains have been refined, draw us together Lord in heart and mind.

Just as the many grapes from a single vine,
when they are pressed together make the wine,
so may our many lives be merged in one,
merged in the life and love of Christ your Son.

Lord accept our gifts of bread and wine, the gifts of the heart that in them you may find,
the image left upon them of your Son,
the image that he died and for us won.

Holy Communion 1

Come journey with us, walk with us,
Listen to our story.
Our hopes, our dreams, our struggles, our joy,
Our story of life, we share with you,
As we journey, Jesus our God.

Chorus; May our hearts be warmed and strengthened by Your presence here.
In your holy Word and Bread of life,
In the love we share.
May we go forth, on our journey with you.

Come journey with us, talk with us,
Tell us of your story.
Open our minds to understand
The mystery of your life with us,
Your risen life, Jesus our God. Chorus

Come journey with us, stay with us,
Make us one with you.
In the blessing of bread, the breaking of bread,
May we truly know, your life in us,
Your love for us, Jesus our God. Chorus

Holy Communion 2

This is holy ground,
We're standing on holy ground,
For the Lord is present
And where he is, is holy. (Repeat)

These are holy hands,
He's given us holy hands.
He works through these hands
And so these hands are holy. (Repeat)

These are holy lives,
He's given us holy lives.
He speaks through these lives
And so these lives are holy. (Repeat)

.Recessional Hymn

Lord I come to you, let my heart be changed, renewed, flowing from the grace, that I found, in you.
And Lord, I've come to know, the weaknesses I see in me will be stripped away, by the pow'r of your love. Chorus

Chorus: Hold me close, let your love surround me, bring me near, draw me to your side,
and as I wait, I'll rise up like the eagle, and I will soar with you, your spirit leads me on,
in the pow'r of your love.

Lord unveil my eyes, let me see you face-to-face,
the knowledge of your love, as you live in me.
Lord renew my mind, as your will unfolds in my life,
in living every day, by the pow'r of your love. Chorus

MASS & RECONCILIATION

Tuesday 9am Mass St Gabriel's

Solemnity of Saint Mary of the Cross

Mary of the cross MacKillop, who took the religious name Mary of the Cross, was born in Melbourne, Australia, in 1842; died in 1909. Responding to the isolation of colonial families, she pioneered a new form of religious life to provide education for their children, sharing the life of the poor and the itinerant, and offering special care to destitute women and the young. She is remembered for her eagerness to discover God's will in all things, for her charity in the face of calumny, and for her abiding trust in God's providence. She was canonised by Pope Benedict XVI 17 October 2010.

RELIC STATUE OF ST JOHN BOSCO

Veneration and Mass celebrated by Archbishop Comensoli
Saturday 30 September 11am
St Margaret Mary's Church
51 Mitchell St Brunswick North.

Peter, James, and John must have wondered why Jesus called them aside and led them up that mountain. Did he have an important teaching to give them? An exciting mission? A special blessing? Jesus gave them all of this - and so much more. At his transfiguration, he offered these three eyewitnesses a revelation of who he is: the Son of God. He gave them a glimpse of his glory.

We can hardly fault them for their stunned silence. Only Peter could find words to respond to Jesus' glorious appearance - and his desire to build tents for Jesus, Moses, and Elijah only demonstrated just how little he understood! Peter was just beginning to see that Jesus was no ordinary teacher. He was beginning to see that Jesus was the Lord, the God of Moses and Elijah, the God of the Law and the Prophets. And what he saw filled his heart with joy. So he said, "Lord, it is good that we are here".

It is good to be with the Lord! It's what we were created for. Whether we realize it or not, our hearts long for God and an awareness of his presence. He is our greatest good! And Jesus longs to reveal that goodness to us even more than we long to know him. That's why he took on flesh and became a man. That's why he poured out his Holy Spirit. And that's why he is truly and fully present in the Eucharist at every Mass.

Today, Jesus wants to give you a glimpse of his glory. He wants to assure you that he is the Lord: alive, powerful, and close to you. Jesus invites you to lift your eyes and your heart toward heaven and ask the Spirit to give you spiritual eyes to see him. So as the priest holds up the Host and Precious Blood at Mass today, you can proclaim in faith with Peter., Lord it is good for us to be here.

FIRST HOLY COMMUNION TABLE BLESSING

Bless this meal, loving Father, with the graces of the Last Supper of your Son.

We thank you for this food and for those who prepared it.
But most of all we thank you for the sacrifice of Christ's Body and Blood which unites us in holy communion and reconciles us to you.
Through Christ our Lord. Amen

Our dead, transfigured in the likeness of Christ's glorious body

WHY DO WE PRAY? III

There are many types of prayer, for instance, prayers of adoration, or forgiveness, or thanksgiving, or intercession.

We shall comment on just one of these, namely, prayer of intercession.

Some now suggest that we should never ask God for earthly blessings. However, the 'Our Father' teaches us to pray for our 'daily bread', that is, what we need for our daily needs. The petitions are the simple, confident, 'demands' of the child. Childlike in a good sense, but not childish. There is no promise that we shall receive this bread, much less caviar and champagne.

However, there is a danger here. Do we only pray well when we want something from God? Do we love God, or what we are asking for?

If most of our (sincere) prayers ask God for something, then we are childish, and we know what children get (or should get) when they spend most of their time asking. The parable of the ten lepers who were cured while only one returned to say thank you is important because it tells us something about human nature, about ourselves.

Another type of prayer which should be encouraged is meditation, especially on the Scriptures. Meditation means 'thinking about', and we all meditate. Who will win the football? What will the children do? Shall I buy a new hat?

Many attitudes and teachings of Christ are puzzling. (Why were the prostitutes closer to the kingdom of heaven than the Pharisees?) We should puzzle over these; perhaps discuss them among ourselves. Certainly we need to let them work on us, and slowly transform us.

This is one reason why the Word of God (the Scripture readings and explanation in the homily) are a vital part of the Mass.

Because of the busy pace of modern life, and the strains this pace imposes, quiet meditative prayer is more necessary now than ever before. We need to stop occasionally, even for our health. This is one more reason why Sunday is a day of rest.

Can we sit with ourselves and face the boredom? (One Eastern writer said that the majority of people are like a shaving of wood which is curled round its central emptiness.) Or do we always lurch for the TV or the radio? For our health, we need to sit quietly occasionally. Do we go a step further and turn to God in these moments of anguish?

"Be still and know that I am God."

Cardinal George Pell (+2023)

christthepriest.com

The spiritual masters of all times have described growth in faith and in love for God as a spiritual, life-and-death combat. The battlefield is the human being's interior life. The Christian's weapon is prayer. We can allow ourselves be defeated by our selfishness and lose ourselves over worthless things - or we can win God.

WYD Prayer

Our Lady of the Visitation,
you who left in haste towards the mountain to meet Elizabeth, lead us also to meet all those who await us to deliver them the living Gospel:
Jesus Christ, your Son and our Lord!

We will go in a hurry,
with no distraction or delay
but with readiness and joy.
We will go peacefully,
because those who take Christ take peace,
and well doing is the best wellbeing.

Our Lady of the Visitation,
with your inspiration, this World Youth Day will be the mutual celebration of the Christ we take, as You once did.

Make it a time of testimony and sharing.
communion, and giving thanks,
each of us looking for the others who always wait.

With you, we will continue on this path of gathering.
so that our world will gather as well,
in fraternity, justice and peace.

Help us, Our Lady of the Visitation, to bring Christ to everyone,
obeying the Father,
in the love of the Spirit!
