CATHOLIC MISSION WEEKEND

We are invited to partner with the Church in Mongolia as they look to be the hands and feet of Jesus by providing a range of support services to people impacted by domestic violence and homelessness. The theme of World Mission Month is to "go and invite everyone to the banquet". We can interpret this as a literal invitation to the Eucharist but also as an opportunity to share the warmth of God's love with our brothers and sisters in need.

Jeremiah 31:7-9 Hebrews 5:1-6 Mark 10:46-52

Processional Hymn CWB 586

Praise to the Lord, the Almighty,
the King of creation!
O my soul, praise him for he is your health and salvation.
All you who hear, now to his altar draw near;
join in profound adoration.

Praise to the Lord,
let us offer our gifts at the altar.
Let not our sins and transgressions
now cause us to falter.
Christ the high priest bids us all join in his feast,
victims with him on the altar.

Praise to the Lord,
who will prosper our work and defend us;
Surely his goodness and mercy here daily attend us;
ponder anew what the Almighty can do,
who with his love will befriend us.

Praise to the Lord!
O let all that is in us adore him!
All that has life and breath,
come now in praises before him!
Let the Amen sounds from his people again,
now as we worship before him.

Liturgy of the Word

Isaiah 53:10-11 Hebrews 4:14-16 Mark 10:35-45

Psalm Response

Lord, let your mercy be on us,
as we place our trust in you.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!
The Son of Man came to serve
and to give his life
as a ransom for all. Alleluia!

Preparation of the Gifts CWB 593

See us, Lord, about your altar;
though so many, we are one:
Many souls by love united
In the heart of Christ, your Son.

Hear our prayers, O loving Father,
Hear in them your Son, our Lord;
Hear him speak our love and worship
As we sing with one accord.

Wheat and grape convey the meaning:
food and drink he is to all;
one in him, we kneel adoring,
gathered by his loving call.

Hear us yet: so much is needful
In our frail, disordered life;
Stay with us and tend our weakness
Till that day of no more strife.

Members of his Mystic Body,
Now we know our prayer is heard,
Heard by you because your children
Have received th'eternal Word.

Holy Communion CWB 461

Brother, sister let me serve you,
let me be as Christ to you;
pray that I may have the grace to
let you be my servant too.

We are pilgrims on a journey
and companions on the road;
we are here to help each other walk the mile and bear the load.

I will hold the Christ-light for you in the night-time of your fear;
I will hold my hand out to you,
speak the peace you long to hear.

I will weep when you are weeping;
when you laugh I'll laugh with you.
I will share your joy and sorrow
till we've seen this journey through.

When we sing to God in heaven
we shall find such harmony,
born of all we've known together
of Christ's love and agony.

Will you let me be your servant,
let me be as Christ to you?
Pray that I may have the grace to
let you be my servant, too.

Recessional Hymn CWB 399

Christ, our Lord, the Prince of ages,
Christ, the nations' glorious King,
whom we praise with exultation,
saints and angels answering,
to your throne with true devotion,
hearts and minds and senses bring.

Come, O Lord, and claim your kingdom,
rebel hearts your grace can gain;
bend the stubborn will of rulers
who from homage still refrain:
in the home, as in the city,
be supreme, O Christ, and reign.

On our own dear land, Australia,
let the light of mercy shine,
that, in holy Church, united,
all may know the saving sign:
Christ, up on the Cross uplifted,
drawing all with love divine!

Some people use their authority to oppress others
and win glory for themselves.
They make their authority felt.
Good leaders
exercise their authority lightly,
using it to help people
live and work together.
In today's Gospel
Jesus describes his authority in terms of service and self-sacrifice:
he came not to be served
but to serve
and to give his life
as a ransom for many.
How do we exercise authority
within our family,
work place, society Church?

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

To you I call; for you will surely heed me, O God; turn your ear to me; hear my words. Guard me as the apple of your eye; in the shadow of your wings protect me.

FIRST READING

Isaiah 53:10-11

The Lord has been pleased to crush his servant with suffering. If he offers his life in atonement, he shall see his heirs, he shall have a long life and through him what the Lord wishes will be done. His soul's anguish over, he shall see the light and be content. By his sufferings shall my servant justify many, taking their faults on himself. The Word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 32(33):4-5,18-20,22

Response:

Lord, let your mercy be on us,
as we place our trust in you.

The word of the Lord is faithful and all his works to be trusted.
The Lord loves justice and right and fills the earth with his love. R

The Lord looks on those who revere him, on those who hope in his love,
to rescue their souls from death,
to keep them alive in famine. R

Our soul is waiting for the Lord.
The Lord is our help and our shield.
May your love be upon us, O Lord,
as we place all our hope in you. R

SECOND READING

Hebrews 4:14-16

Since in Jesus, the Son of God, we have the supreme high priest who has gone through to the highest heaven, we must never let go of the faith that we have professed. For it is not as if we had a high priest who was incapable of feeling our weaknesses with us; but we have one who has been tempted in every way that we are, though he is without sin. Let us be confident, then in approaching the throne of grace, that we shall have mercy from him and find grace when we are in need of help.

The word of the Lord.
All: Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!
The Son of Man
came to serve,
and to give his life
as a ransom for all. Alleluia!

GOSPEL READING

Mark 10: 35-45

James and John, the sons of Zebedee, approached Jesus. 'Master,' they said to him, 'we want you to do us a favour.' He said to them, 'What is it you want me to do for you?' They said to him, 'Allow us to sit one at your right hand and the other at your left in your glory.' 'You do not know what you are asking' Jesus said to them. 'Can you drink the cup that I must drink, or be baptized with the baptism with which I must be baptized?' They replied, 'We can.' Jesus said to them. 'The cup that I must drink you shall drink, and with the baptism with which I must be baptized you shall be baptized, but as for seats at my right hand or my left these are not mine to grant: they belong to those to whom they have been allotted.'

When the other ten heard this they began to feel indignant with James and John, so Jesus called them to him and said to them. "You know that among the pagans their so-called rulers lord it over them, and their great men make their authority felt. This is not to happen among you. No; anyone who wants to become great among you must be your servant, and anyone who wants to be first among you must be slave to all. For the Son of Man himself did not come to be served but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many.

The Gospel of the Lord.
All:Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

NICENE CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son, is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the Prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic, and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Fr Manny wishes to thank all parishioners and friends of St Joseph the Worker for the remarkable Farewell given to him with a Thanksgiving Mass in church and refreshments in hall. Fr Manny wishes to offer thanks to all those who participated in the giving of the gift from the whole parish, a very much necessary gift (laptop and printer), it is much appreciated and will be a continual reminder of all. Fr Manny wishes to say thank you to the many individual best wishes cards and gifts given to him. Fr Manny thanks school principal Maria and REL Kate and the whole school for the special prayer service farewell and gifts. Fr Manny thanks the dedicated organizing group of the Sunday farewell celebration and says thank you for the hard work and well done. Finally Fr Manny says thanks to St Joseph the Worker.

On behalf of the Bonello family I would like to thank all St Joseph the Worker parishioner for your warm hospitality every time we the family have visited the parish and for all the assistance you have generously given to Fr Manny over the 17 years of his ministry at St Joseph's. There are some names that stand out but for fear of leaving someone out I'm not going to mention names, you know who you are. Thank you very much.

St Joseph the Worker pray for us.

The communion of saints is made up of all people who have placed their hope in Christ and belong to him through Baptism, whether they have already died or are still alive. Because in Christ we are one Body: we live in a communion that encompasses heaven and earth. The Church is larger and more alive than we think. Among her members are the living and the deceased (whether they are still undergoing a process of purification or are already in the glory of God), individuals known and unknown, great saints and inconspicuous persons. We can help one another even beyond the grave. We can call on our patrons and favourite saints, but also our departed relatives and friends whom we believe are already with God. Conversely, by our intercessory prayer, we can come to the aid of our dear departed who are still undergoing purification. Whatever the individual does or suffers in and for Christ benefits all. Conversely, this unfortunately means also that every sin harms the communion.
